DOES RHEUMATISM BOTHER YOU?

The Doctors Say "Use Musterole"

So many sufferers have found relief in MUSTEROLE that you ought to buy a small jar and try it.

Just spread it on with the fingers. Rub it in. First you feel a gentle glow, then a delicious, cooling comfort. MUSTEROLE relieves the twinges, loosens up stiffened joints and muscles.

MUSTEROLE is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. It penetrates to the seat of pain and drives it away, but does not blister the tenderest skin.

It takes the place of the musky, old-fashioned mustard plaster.

MUSTEROLE is recommended for Bronchitis, Croup, Asthma, Pleurisy, Lumbago, Neuralgia, Sprains, Bruises, Stiff Neck, Headache and Colds of the Chest (it often prevents Pneumonia).

At your druggist's, in 25c and 50c jars, and a special large hospital size for $1.00. Be sure you get the genuine MUSTEROLE. Refuse imitations—get what you ask for. The Musterole Company, Cleveland, Ohio.

WOMEN ORGANIZED TO SWAY POLITICS IN 1916 CAMPAIGN

PARTY OF THEIR OWN.

Now Vote in 12 States, Electing One-Fifth of Electoral College.

Women Suffragists will enter into the national campaign this year for the first time with a political organization of their own, backed by the power of the ballot in twelve states which contribute one-fifth of the votes in the Electoral College.

When Republican and Progressive delegates arrive in Chicago for their convention on June 7, they will find a large company of women already in convention, working to accomplish one and only one thing—Woman Suffrage on a national, not State, basis.

"We call," reads the proclamation, "upon all our fellow members in the Suffrage States to assemble Habit is a hard thing to overcome. Many people, for example, still use chalk (or powder, as it is also called) for their dentifrice. But powder is inconvenient, messy and wasteful. A third of every can of powder remains on the washstand, having dropped off the brush.

Something vastly better can be had by using Albidon, which comes in a tube, but is a cream, not a paste. It contains the highest percentage of actual cleansing and polishing properties of any dentifrice on the market. Your dentist, knowing the ingredients, will tell you it is sufficiently abrasive to replace straight powders. It has in addition the merit of being antiseptic. It is furthermore free from grit, which cannot always be said of powders.

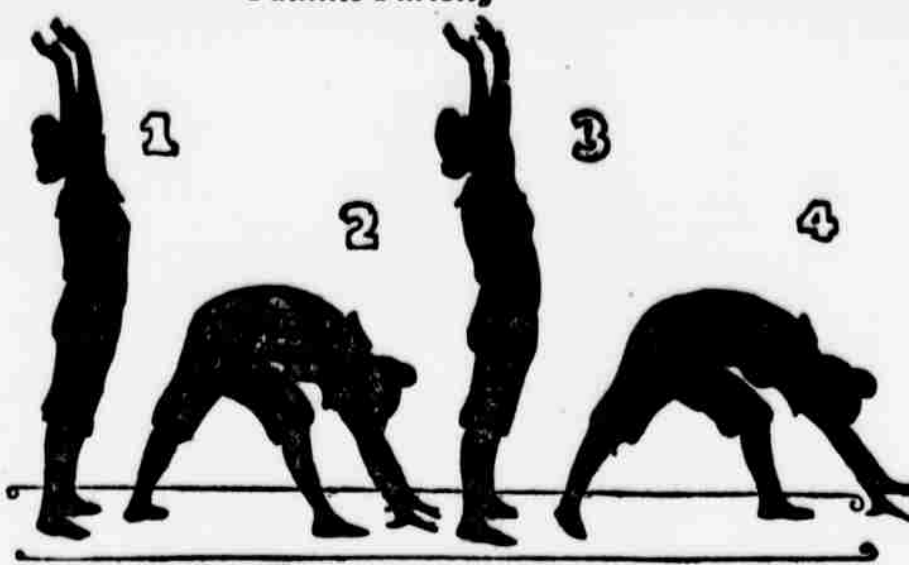

Try it to-day.

Price 25 cents a liberal tube wherever toilet articles are sold, and a free sample can be had by sending your name and address to The Albidon Co., Dept. B, 154 West 18th St., N. Y. A postal will do.

with us in Chicago on June 5, 6 and 7 to launch a Woman's Party which will work independently of all existing political organizations to secure the immediate passage of the national Suffrage amendment.

"The fact that one-fifth of the electoral vote and one-third of the vote necessary to elect the next President comes from the Suffrage States gives voting women such power in Congress as to make certain the passage of the national amendment if they will unite in its support. Congress has blocked the amendment at every turn, however, and only by the insistent demand of women voters can its passage be secured."

THE SIMPLE AMENDMENT WHICH THEY DEMAND.

Susan B. Anthony, in 1875, drafted the proposed amendment to the Federal Constitution which the Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage now urges. It is short and simple, reading as follows:

"The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of sex."

"Congress shall have power, by appropriate legislation, to enforce the provisions of this article."

New York's delegation to this woman's convention will be headed by Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont. Among her associates will be Mrs. Inez Milholland Bolivar, Mrs. Emanuel Einstein, Mrs. Robert Adamson, Mrs. Harriet Stanton Blatch, Mrs. Phoebe Hearst, Mrs. Charles Farnham, Miss Marion May, Miss Lucy Burns, Mrs. Clarence J. Smith, Mrs. Charles A. Hendr, Mrs. Frank Cothren and Mrs. J. E. Lambie.

Mrs. Adamson, whose husband is Fire Commissioner of New York City and a practical politician, said to the Evening World:

"The question has entirely passed the debatable stage and is now a plain political issue. By putting Suffrage first and party affiliations second, women can be the deciding factor in the next Presidential election."

"By standing together, women can form a party strong enough to secure immediate passage through Congress of the Susan B. Anthony amendment, enfranchising the women of the United States."

ONLY REAL VOTERS TO HAVE VOICE IN CHICAGO.

While women from all States will go to Chicago, only those delegates from States which already have granted them the ballot will vote in convention. So far as official proceedings go, it will be strictly a women voters' Convention. Those who have not yet secured the ballot must content themselves with being enthusiastic spectators on the side lines.

The twelve States wherein women will vote this year for President and their votes in the Electoral College are as follows: Arizona, 3; California, 12; Colorado, 6; Idaho, 4; Illinois, 20; Kansas, 10; Montana, 4; Nevada, 3; Oregon, 6; Utah, 4; Washington, 7;

Wyoming, 3. Total votes, 51 out of 111.

"In the last five Presidential elections," so the Woman's Party publications declare, "not one of these States has gone steadily for any one party. Small turn-over of votes could have altered election results. In 1912 none of the equal Suffrage States would have required a change of more than 7.5 per cent. of the total vote to swing the Presidential election in that State."

"Even a small group of women determined to stand out for the long-delayed enfranchisement of their sex throughout the Nation can form the balance of power. Over 4,000,000 women can now vote in national elections in twelve States.

"These States elect one-fourth of the Senate and one-sixth of the House. They cast one-fifth of the electoral vote and one-third of the votes necessary to elect a President. The number of votes now held by women is more than one-fourth of the total popular vote cast in 1912."

"Since 1896 women have been mobilizing their votes in those twelve States and they are now prepared to ask something of the Republicans in return for their plea for aid. They will ask a plank in the platform definitely supporting the Federal suffrage amendment. It can't be refused."

JUST A HINT OF A THREAT TO THE REPUBLICANS.

"The Progressives, in January of this year, have reiterated their acceptance of equal suffrage and have thereby made equal suffrage a national issue. Alone, the Republicans carried but two States in 1912. They must pull with the Progressives, and Woman Suffrage is a practical yoke."

"Can the Democrats ignore women voters in twelve States? By no means. They, too, must have a Federal amendment plank; but they cannot escape so easily. While in power the Democrats have been urged, begged, implored to make Woman Suffrage an Administration measure. Having the power to secure passage of the amendment, if they fail to do so before the Republicans meet in convention, mere copy of the Republican plank will suffice them nothing in the Presidential campaign. They will have no story with which to campaign beyond the Mississippi; they will have been tested and found wanting."

GOVERNMENT PAYS PRINTING AND POSTAGE FOR CALDER'S SPEECH

Republican Candidate for U. S. Senate Finds Cheap Way of Campaigning.

The United States Treasury has been drawn upon to help pay for the literary propaganda expenses of William M. Calder of Brooklyn in his candidacy for the Republican nomination for United States Senator.

Many thousands of printed copies of a speech by Mr. Calder are being sent free through the mails to voters throughout the State. Moreover, the document was printed by the Government Printing Office in Washington.

Mr. Calder is not a member of Congress. He is not now entitled either to have documents printed for him at the Government Printing Office, nor to have anything sent through the mails free.

But a very simple little subterfuge saves Mr. Calder the cost of postage stamps and printing. An obliging friend who is a Member of Congress lends his name as a cover. In this case Edmund Platt, member from the tough-keepsie district, is the man. His name appears on the document in the smallest type and most inconspicuous manner allowed by law, while Mr. Calder gets big black type and all the headlines.

On the cover of the pamphlet appears the following title: "National Defense. Address of the Honorable William M. Calder of New York, delivered at the annual banquet of the

FOUGHT OVER THEIR CHILD.

Separated Parents Draw Crowd and Police Interfere.

When Joseph Letarte and Mrs. Louise Sullivan were arraigned early to-day in Night Court, it was learned they formerly were husband and wife, and that the large crowd they drew to Tenth Avenue and Forty-sixth Street was merely curious to know which would get possession of their ten-year-old daughter, Myra Letarte.

Since the couple separated three years ago the girl has been living with her father at No. 463 West Forty-sixth Street. The police were told the mother visited the daughter last night, and tried to take her away when she started home. Then the fight came. The crowd did not interfere, but three policemen did. Magistrate Grohnd suspended sentence.
